REPORT

On the 1st day of camp, i.e., 28-2-22, science exhibition at school. On February 28th, 2022, a special residential camp at Kalyan village was planned by AISSMS College of Engineering Pune, NSS unit with 75 students. The students ate their lunch after they had placed all of their belongings and bags. After that, a team was formed and then everyone was assigned to some tasks, like we had to bring water from the well for the preparation of dinner. Our NSS volunteers held a Science Exhibition for the students in which our NSS volunteers showed various science projects to school students. In the evening we had a guest lecture by Mrs. Nandini Jadhav on how superstition is a social curse. All 73 volunteers managed and conducted the programme from their respective fields under the supervision of programme officer Dr. N. N. Shejwal and NSS coordinators. We got a chance to interact with each other on the first day.
